Malaysia

Situated in the heart of Southeast Asia, Malaysia is a vibrant destination with a diversity of cultures and traditions. This tropical paradise boasts pristine jungles and verdant national parks that are teeming with numerous species of birds and wildlife.

Malaysia's sun-drenched islands and beaches are home to a stunning range of marine life. Its natural wealth is complemented by magnificent modern landmarks and heritage buildings. There is something to charm every visitor, be it a history-lover, nature-enthusiast, sun-seeker or an avid shopper. Explore the length and breadth of the country to discover the many attractions of Malaysia!

Selangor

Welcome to Selangor, hailed as the 'Gateway to Malaysia'. Selangor is home to two international airports (Terminal 1 and Terminal 2) and Malaysia's largest seaport, Port Klang. The state offers visitors an exciting discovery of fabulous natural wonders, exciting theme parks, shopping malls to never-ending culinary delights from the 13 states in Malaysia. Shah Alam, Selangor's capital city is a well-planned township. Other urban centres include Petaling Jaya, Subang Jaya, Sunway and the royal town of Klang. Major attractions in the state include Sepang International Circuit, which is home to the world-renowned Petronas F1 Malaysian GP and theme parks such as Sunway Lagoon and i-City. Selangor has a scenic hinterland that is dotted with scenic homestay villages, firefly parks, recreational forests and coastal mangroves.

GETTING THERE

Selangor is the location of the main entry points to Malaysia. The Kuala Lumpur International Airport (Terminal 1) and Terminal 2 are both located in Selangor. Malaysia Airlines, the national carrier, operates from Terminal 1 while Terminal 2 is the hub for low-cost carriers such as AirAsia. The Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport is also located in Selangor. Its SkyPark Terminal serves Firefly, Berjaya Air and private carriers. Batik Air operates from both Terminal 1 and Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport. An excellent network of roads provides easy access to Selangor from any part of the country. Selangor is connected to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia's capital city, via the Federal Highway and other ring roads. The country's largest port, Port Klang, is also situated in Selangor. Passengers arriving via the luxury Star Cruises liners disembark at the Pulau Indah Terminal while visitors from Indonesia arrive at the Passenger Cruise Terminal in South Point.

GETTING AROUND

Getting around Selangor is very convenient as it is linked by buses, taxis and trains. The KTM Komuter train provides access to towns such as Klang, Subang, Batu Caves, Kajang and Shah Alam. Additionally, the RapidKL LRT and MRT trains connect visitors to various towns around the state. Taxis can be hailed at all taxi stands. Call taxis are available to most destinations including for airport transfers.

SHOPPING

Selangor is one of the leading shopping destinations in the country. Popular malls include Sunway Pyramid, winner of the Innovative Shopping Centre (Integrated) award at the 19th Malaysia Tourism Awards 2014/15 as well as Mitsui Outlet Park, a factory outlet shopping mall that offers branded items at attractive prices. The state's exciting line-up of malls also includes IOI City Mall in Sepang, 1Utama and IKEA in Damansara, Atria Shopping Gallery in Petaling Jaya, Setia City Mall and SACC Mall in Shah Alam, Setia Walk in Puchong and The MINES in Seri Kembangan.

DINING

Selangor is a microcosm of Malaysia, where people from the 13 states converge to work and live harmoniously. The potpourri is evident in the abundance of food choices, ranging from Asam Pedas Melaka to Laksa Johor, Nasi Dagang Kelantan, Nasi Kandar Penang and other iconic dishes from around the country. Selangor is also known as the 'Satay State', for the wide availability of satay, a delicacy of grilled meat on skewers, served with fresh cucumber slices and a tasty peanut sauce.

HOMESTAYS

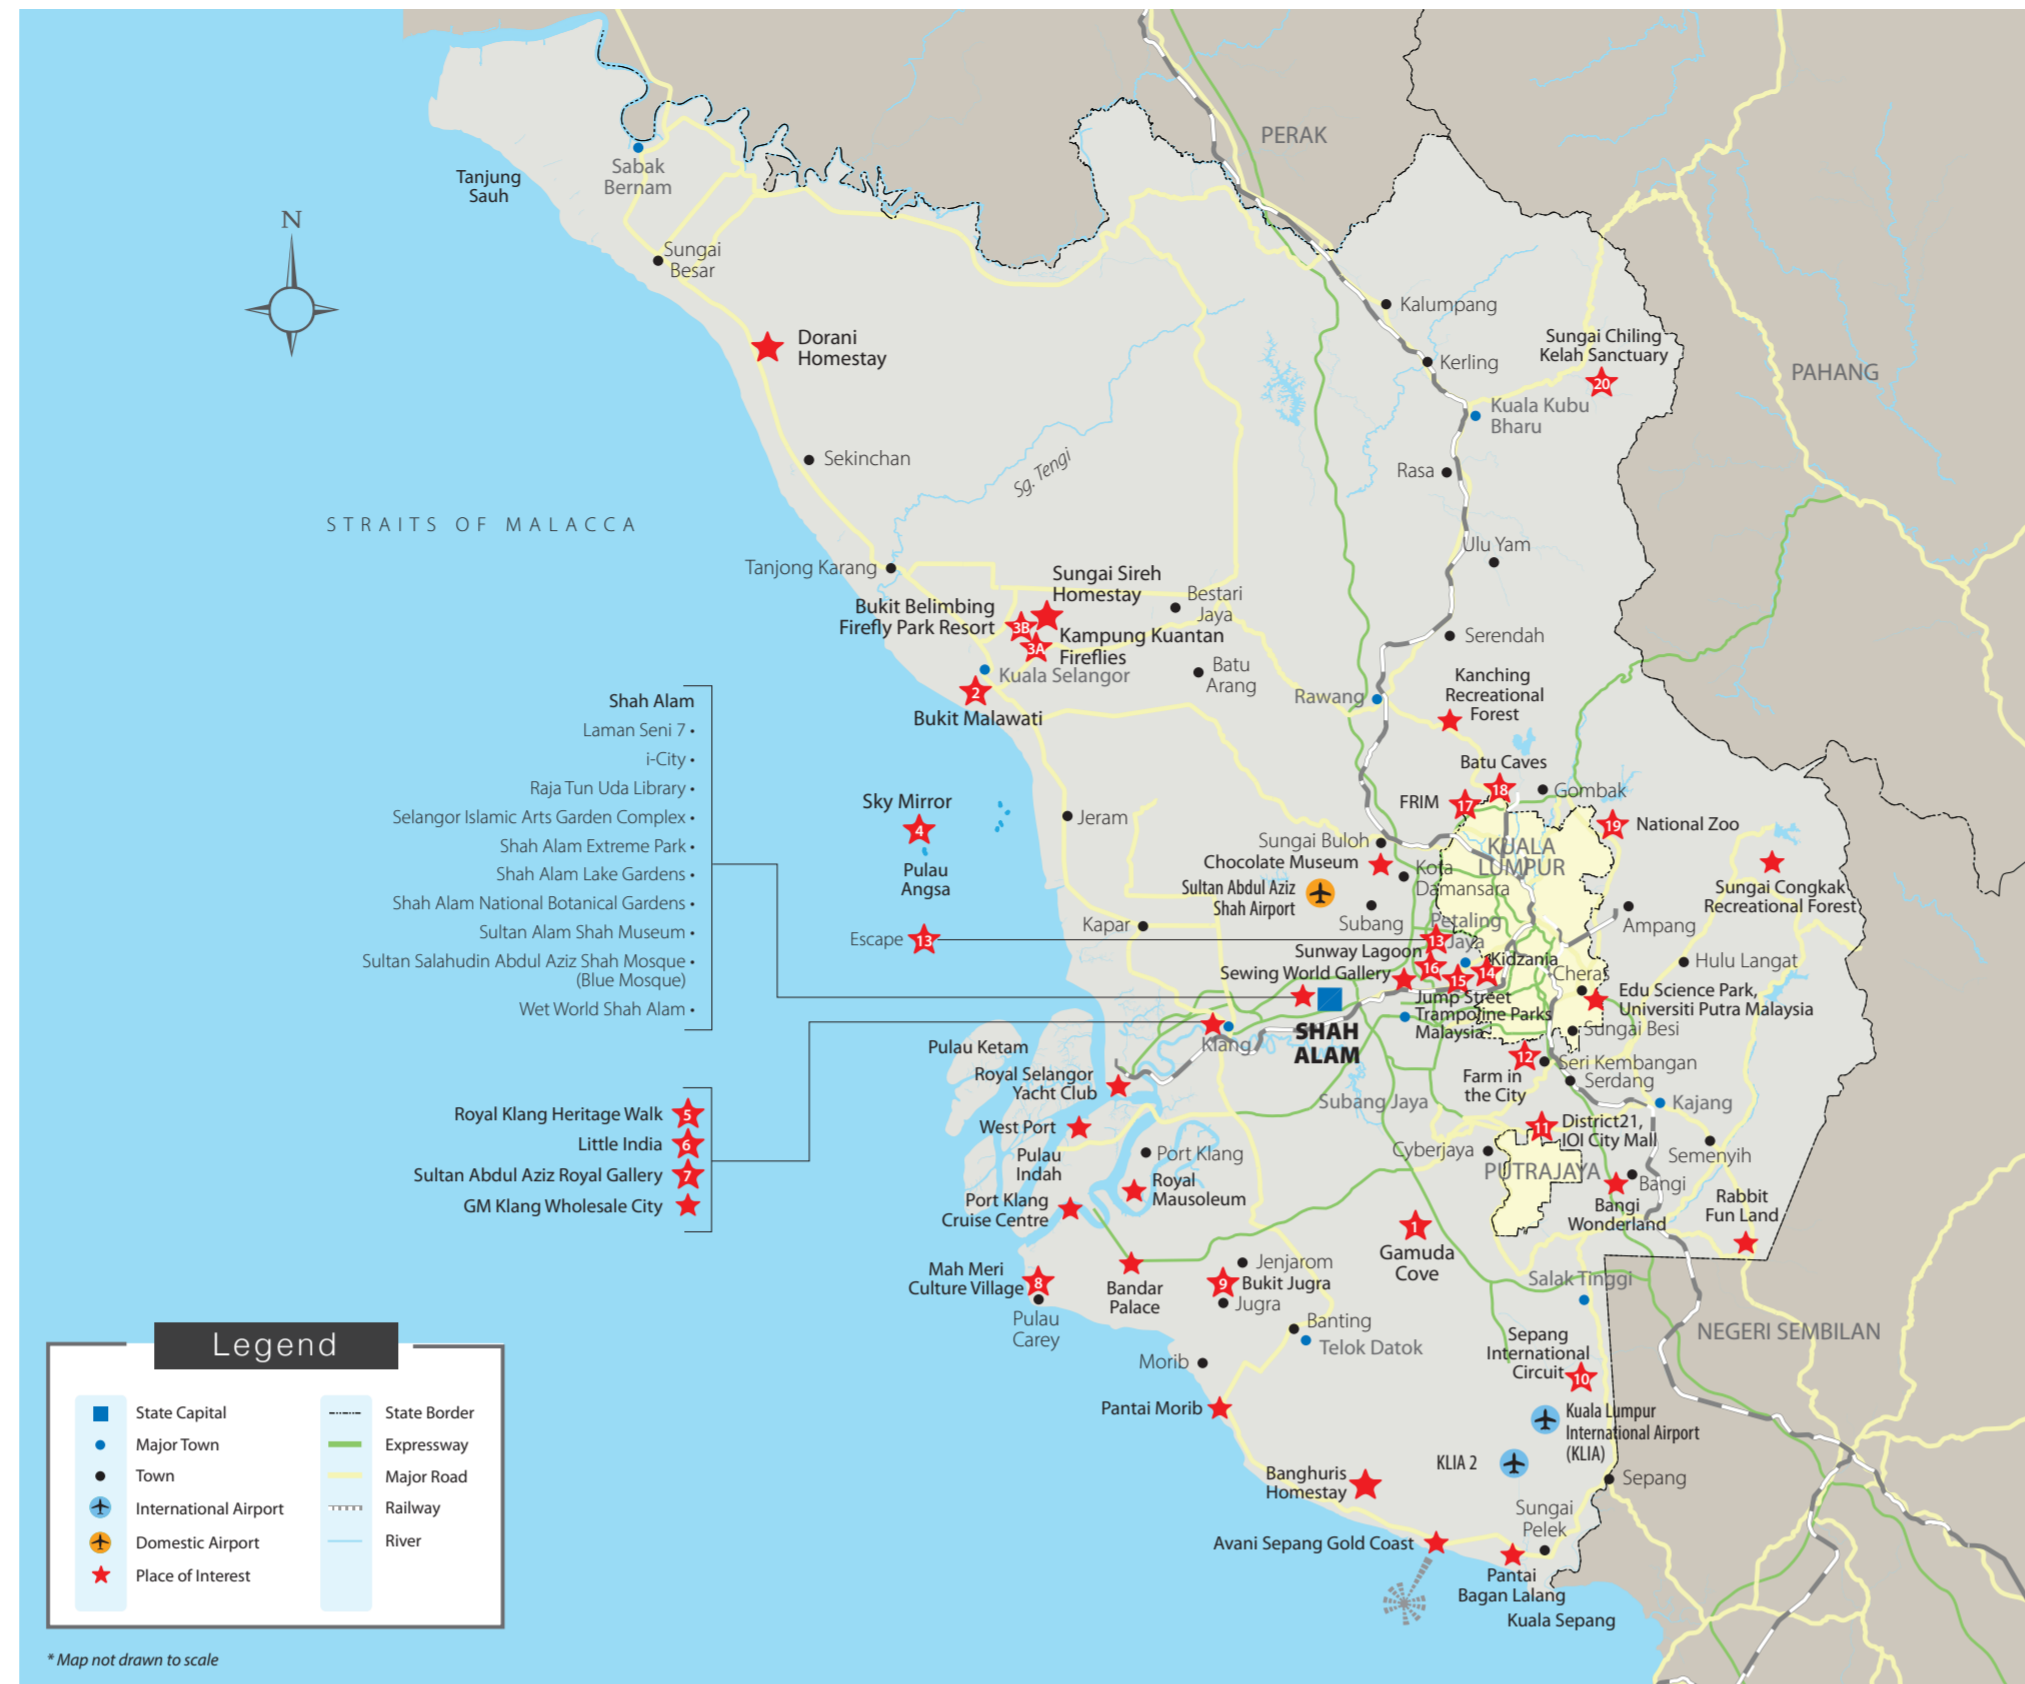

Through a homestay programme, visitors can stay with a host family in a Malay village or 'kampung' and get a first-hand experience of the local lifestyle. Try your hand at rice planting, kite-flying or enjoy indoor games such as 'congkak'. Among the popular homestay villages in Selangor are Kampung Sungai Haji Dorani, Kampung Sungai Sireh, Kampung Setangkas, Kampung Endah, Kampung Banghurus, Papisulem and Kampung Air Manis.

BUKIT MALAWATI, KUALA SELANGOR
Bukit Malawati or Malawati Hill is an important part of the state's history. In the 18th century, the second Sultan of Selangor commissioned the building of Fort Malawati to protect the state. However, Fort Malawati fell to the advancing Dutch forces. This fort continued to be the focal point of many power struggles before it was eventually destroyed during the Selangor Civil War. Visitors can still see the ruins of its original foundation blocks and cannons, a 100-step stairway, an execution slab and a poisoned well.

FIREFLY PARKS, KUALA SELANGOR
Hailed as 'the eighth wonder of the world', the firefly colonies of Kuala Selangor are a rare natural phenomenon. The villages of Kampung Kuantan and Kampung Bukit Belimbing are among the few places in the world where visitors can watch the synchronised flashing of fireflies. Enjoy a ride on a sampan (traditional wooden boat) along the river to watch the spectacular display. Visitors are required to make their bookings in advance.

SKY MIRROR, SASARAN BEACH, KUALA SELANGOR
Named after the mirror-like reflection of the sky, Sky Mirror in Kuala Selangor a unique natural attraction that only emerges for several days in a month, on the first and 15th of the lunar month as well as four days before and after these dates. A hidden sand bar emerges when the tide is ideal and creates a magical setting for photography enthusiasts. This attraction is also dubbed the Salar de Uyuni of Malaysia, a similar natural wonder in Bolivia. Sasaran Beach is located about 30 minutes' boat ride from Jeram, a coastal fishing village.

ROYAL KLANG HERITAGE WALK
Said to be the oldest town in Selangor, Klang is characterised by heritage buildings and quaint traditional structures. In the past, Klang was the royal capital of the state and one of the most important tin mining areas in the peninsula. Its heritage quarters can be visited on foot via a heritage walk. There are 18 heritage sites including the Klang Railway Station, Raja Mahadi Fort, a Victorian-style fire station, the Royal Gallery, a church, a Hindu temple and a Buddhist temple. Trail maps are available at most tourist information centres.

LITTLE INDIA, KLANG
Said to be the biggest Indian enclave in the country, Little India in Klang is a paradise for shoppers who enjoy browsing through Indian-inspired items. The labyrinth of streets along Jalan Tunku Kelana is lined by shops selling everything from traditional Indian outfits, accessories such as bangles, necklaces and earrings to garlands made of fresh flowers and home décor items. The town takes a festive atmosphere during Indian festivals when shoppers make a beeline to this town.

SULTAN ABDUL AZIZ ROYAL GALLERY, KLANG
Sultan Abdul Aziz Royal Gallery was established in honour of Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah, who ruled for over 39 years as the Sultan of Selangor and two years as the King of Malaysia. The gallery gives an insight into the rich history and heritage of the Selangor sultanate, with a collection of artefacts, gifts, documents and crown jewels. Sultan Abdul Aziz Royal Gallery is housed in Bangunan Sultan Suleiman, a classic colonial building erected in 1909.
